

STYLE CANADA PRESS CENTRE

Dated August 23, 2009

By Susan Casey

Welcome Wagon Rides A Bridal Wave Into Cambridge

Aug 23, 2009 – Welcome Wagon, Canada's national greeting service, will host a bridal showcase on Monday, October 5, 2009 from 6pm-9pm at the Armenian Community Centre located at 15 International Village Drive in Cambridge, ON. The show will feature fabulous exhibits from top wedding professionals offering the newest ideas in wedding planning. Plus, a spectacular fashion show will highlight the latest trends in bridal, formalwear and floral design.

"Area brides-to-be can find their dream dresses, tuxedos for grooms and hotel accommodations for their guests," says Welcome Wagon Cambridge Event Coordinator Susan Casey. "They can view photographer's stunning portfolio, sample delicious wedding cake, book a beautiful limousine as well as plan the unforgettable honeymoon and so much more...all in one day and at one convenient location."

The Welcome Wagon Bridal Showcase is an event that makes it so easy for brides-to-be to plan their entire wedding. During the Bridal Showcase thousands of dollars in door prizes will be given to some winning attendees including the Grand Door Prize of a luxurious "Girls' Night-Out" limousine service, generously provided by Brentwood Livery.

A show highlight includes a gorgeous fashion show, courtesy of A Moment In Time Bridal Boutique, Tuxedo Royale and Floresta Flowers & Giftware. All attending brides-to-be will have a chance to win a romantic honeymoon getaway courtesy of Today's Bride magazine. The first 150 brides to arrive at our event will receive a free gift bag.